Integrating Nature of Science and Physical Science in Rural Schools (INSPIRS)

Longwood Institute for Teaching through Technology and Innovative Practices (ITTIP) has received a Mathematics and Science Partnership (MSP) grant to provide Nature of Science (NoS) and Physical Science (PS) professional development for middle and high school Physical Science teachers in partnering school divisions. FIRST COME FIRST SERVED. ONLY TWENTY TEACHERS PLEASE.

Activities of INSPIRS will include:

- 5-day professional development institute in the Summer of 2012 focused on the integration of NoS and PS through:
  - Inquiry Based Learning (IBL), Problem Based Learning (PBL), Understanding by Design (UbD), the 5e learning cycle
  - Training on software and probeware to integrate into a NoS and PS unit
  - Lesson plan development using UbD as a template to design a Physical Science unit of instruction
- Online resources and support during the school year using Moodle
- Classroom follow-up during the school year by ITTIP faculty
- Final summit of two instructional units created by teachers on one Saturday in the last week of May or early June 2013

Twenty teachers will receive:

- $600 stipend upon completion of year-long activities ($300 for attending all five days in summer, $300 for completing two activities and the Summit)
- 75 recertification points upon completion of year-long activities
- Software and Probeware
- Resources for IBL, PBL, UbD, and 5e Strategies
- Web publication of NoS and PS units for statewide distribution

Physical Science teachers from the following school divisions are eligible to participate in this opportunity: Amelia, Brunswick, Charlotte, Cumberland, Danville, Dinwiddie, Halifax, Mecklenburg, Patrick, and Pittsylvania.

Two or more teachers from the same school are encouraged to attend as a team.

The second INSPIRS institute will be held August 6-10, 2012 in Dinwiddie county. Some funds are available for travel and lodging upon request (for teacher teams traveling more than 60 miles one way) REGISTER at <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/INSPIRS>.

Deadline to register is June 9, 2012. Email manotalaiver@gmail.com if you have specific questions.
